

The Tiffin Girls' School

Suggested Reading for Years 9 and 10

Introduction

This list is meant as a starting point. They are suggestions only, to provide some inspiration, and to bring to your attention books that you may not otherwise seek out or be aware of. Not all the books are for everyone – remember that your reading choices are personal to you.

Use the books suggested to explore others written by the same author. Try books from each genre: you never know what you might enjoy, and remember that very few books fall into one genre only. This list doesn't include too many 'popular' fiction books but of course there are lots of these as well.

All the books listed are in the School Library, but use your Public Library as well, and remember to review the books you have read on the Library's Online Catalogue <http://heritage.tiffingirls.org/>, especially those you really think others should read.

You can also find other book lists and new books on these websites (and many others):
